Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Beverly M. Frost is a native of South Dakota--born in Sturgis, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Beverly Frost has been employed at the Meade County Courthouse since 1957, first as a deputy in the Assessor's Office, then as deputy in the Register of Deeds' Office; and,

WHEREAS, In 1969, Beverly was first elected to the position of Meade County Register of Deeds and has held that office for 21 1/2 years; and,

WHEREAS, In 1977, Beverly was elected--and served until 1988--by the South Dakota County Officials to their executive board, and she was the only West River representative; and,

WHEREAS, Beverly has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Beverly is a devoted wife to her husband, Jack, a good mother to her five children and a loving grandmother to her five grandchildren; and,

WHEREAS, On April 30, after 32 years of service to Meade County and this great state, Beverly is retiring and taking time to camp with her husband:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 30, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends, co-workers and relatives in wishing her good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
